Aims and activities of the organisation	Artepunkt aims to promote best practice in the field of modern theater practice, drama pedagogue and inclusive arts. Artepunkt is a nationally and internationally independent company of artists who make work for all aspects of theater and visual arts. We are based in Belgrade (Serbia), Oslo (Norway), Vienna (Austria), London (United Kingdom) where we develop and perform our multimedia work. Artepunkt was created by stage director and producer Dejan Jankovic. The power of art can communicate in surprising ways. Therefore, we connect artist and the ordinary man in searching for life and new art language which can communicate with everybody on the world map. With theatre makers of all kind of artistic backgrounds, we are creating a innovative, encouraging project that explore, deconstruct and critique shape, content and social issues of postmodern world. Our unique programs are designed to support intercultural, multidisciplinary work that does not fit into a conventional programming agenda and encourage outside-the-box thinking and innovative, genrebending work.
