

Sub-programme

- Culture
- MEDIA
- Cross-Sectoral

x
x

Proposed Project Role

- Coordinator
- Member/Partner
- 3rd Party

x
x

Action

Action Title

Let's work together on the transition to a sustainable and socially just future through the power of imagination.

Deadline

Cultural operator(s)

Name

Pulse Cultural Network for Transition

Short description

Pulse Cultural Network for Transition facilitates collaboration between cultural actors who want to work on sustainable alternatives for our current societal model and accelerate the transition towards a socially just and sustainable future. We are a network organisation that connects youth, culture and media professionals within Flanders and beyond on sustainability challenges.

Contact details

ruben.arnaerts@pulsenetwerk.be

Project

Field(s)

- Culture: Interdisciplinary
- MEDIA: Games

Description

We are particularly strong as process and project facilitators and try to connect everyone professionally active within culture (in the broad sense: from social-cultural to youth work, media to heritage, (performing) arts and music, ...).

Partners searched

Countries

All over Europe

Profile

Our network is cross-sectoral in its core, so we work together with all kinds of institutions and organisations within these fields: from NGOs to government institutions, individual artists to youth organisations, gaming industry to museums.

Other

More information on our website: <https://www.pulsenetwerk.be/>
There's also concised English version: <https://www.pulsenetwerk.be/english>, including our vision 'Culture as a driver for transition' in this document.