Aims and activities of the organisation	A Casa Vella is a centre of creation that blends performing arts and social action in rural areas. It is dedicated to supporting independent professional artistic creation focused on research, training, production, and the dissemination of contemporary creative practices centered on the body, movement, and social and natural ecosystems. It is both a physical space in the heart of rural Galicia and a platform for creative innovation to foster knowledge, critical thinking, and cultural content addressing current challenges, with a special focus on participatory processes and the exercise of cultural rights in rural settings, as well as food sovereignty and the promotion of gender equality in the cultural and creative sector. A Casa Vella's activities and initiatives are aimed both at the artistic and professional community in the cultural and creative sector, and at the local community. Current activities offered include artist residences, cultural outreach activities, intermediate and advanced training workshops aimed at professionals in dance and the performing arts, design and development of cultural projects, movement sessions focused on active and healthy aging, organisation and hosting of professional conferences and forums, and design and production of original digital content.
