Aims and activities of the organisation	Coliseu Micaelense is a multidisciplinary cultural venue based in Ponta Delgada, on São Miguel Island, Azores (Portugal). Its mission is to promote access to culture and the arts, foster artistic excellence, and contribute to the social, cultural, and economic development of the region. As a key cultural infrastructure in an EU outermost region, Coliseu Micaelense aims to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensure broad public access to high-quality cultural programming • Promote performing arts, including music, theatre, dance, and multidisciplinary performances • Support artistic creation and professional development • Encourage cultural participation and audience development • Foster intercultural dialogue and international cooperation The organisation develops a diverse annual programme that includes concerts, theatre productions, dance performances, festivals, conferences, educational activities, and community-oriented initiatives. In addition to presenting national and international artists, Coliseu Micaelense provides space and technical support for rehearsals, artistic residencies, training activities, and smaller-scale cultural events. Coliseu Micaelense also plays an important role in cultural mediation and education, promoting activities that engage different audiences, including young people and local communities. Through its work, the organisation contributes to strengthening the cultural ecosystem of the Azores and enhancing the visibility of the region at national and international levels. Looking ahead, the organisation seeks to expand its European dimension by participating in transnational cooperation projects, integrating international networks, and promoting the circulation of artists and cultural works across borders.

Role of the organisation in the project	Coliseu Micaelense can act as a hosting and implementation partner within the project consortium. The organisation can provide a fully equipped cultural venue for the presentation of artistic works, public events, conferences, workshops, exhibitions, and audience development activities. With a 1,200-seat main auditorium, rehearsal and training rooms, and a noble hall suitable for smaller-scale events, Coliseu Micaelense is well positioned to host performances, artistic residencies, co-creation processes, and capacity-building initiatives. The organisation will contribute through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hosting and co-producing artistic presentations and public events • Providing technical infrastructure and production support • Supporting artist mobility and residency programmes • Engaging local audiences and communities, particularly in an EU outermost region • Contributing to communication and dissemination activities at regional and national levels Given its geographical position in the Azores, Coliseu Micaelense will also play a strategic role in widening access to European cultural cooperation in outermost regions, fostering territorial cohesion and strengthening connections between peripheral regions and the broader European cultural landscape. The organisation is committed to active participation in project implementation, collaboration within transnational networks, and the exchange of good practices with European partners.

Which kind of projects are you looking for?	Coliseu Micaelense is eager to joining cooperation projects where we can actively contribute and add value as a reliable and committed partner. We are particularly interested in projects related to performing arts, multidisciplinary creation, audience development, artist mobility, artistic residencies, cultural exchange, and capacity-building initiatives. We are also open to proposals in the fields of visual arts and cultural heritage, especially when they involve public presentation, community engagement, or cross-sector collaboration. As a cultural venue located in an EU outermost region, we are especially motivated to participate in projects that promote territorial inclusion, transnational cooperation, circulation of artists and works, and long-term network building. We are open to different roles within a consortium — including hosting partner, co-producer, dissemination partner, or contributor to specific work packages — depending on the project’s objectives and needs.
