Aims and activities of the organisation	Élémentaires is a non-profit organization dedicated to creating documentary films that explore the deep connection between humans and nature. Our focus is on highlighting traditional knowledge, environmental sustainability, and the way different cultures interact with the four natural elements: water, air, earth, and fire. Through immersive storytelling, we aim to inspire awareness and reflection on our relationship with the natural world.
Role of the organisation in the project	Our organization serves as both the initiator and producer of documentary projects. We handle research, filming, and production while collaborating with local communities, experts, and other creatives to bring authentic and visually compelling stories to life.
Previous EU grants received	None

Proposed Creative Europe project – to which project are you looking for partners?

Sector or field	Documentary filmmaking, environmental storytelling, cultural heritage, sustainability, and mobility.
Description or summary of the proposed project	Our project, Dans leur élément , is a documentary exploring the four natural elements through the eyes of those who live in harmony with them. Shot across Europe, West Africa, and Latin America, the film follows individuals deeply connected to water, air, earth, and fire— from fishermen and sailors to farmers and shamans. The documentary aims to blend stunning cinematography with insightful storytelling, inviting audiences to rethink their own relationship with nature. We seek partners who can contribute expertise, resources, or distribution support to enhance the impact and reach of our documentary.
Partners currently involved in the project	None
